

Top Five Things To Do In Downtown Guelph

1

Basilica of Our Lady Immaculate

The Basilica of Our Lady Immaculate – A National Historic Site, sits prominently at the highest point in town. The church was built in the Gothic Revival style and is considered a masterpiece. Take a Guided tour through the building and unpack many years of Guelph's history.

Location: 28 Norfolk St.

2

Guelph Farmers Market

The Guelph Farmers' Market is a community cornerstone offering fresh local food, artisanal products and a friendly, welcoming atmosphere. Visit the Guelph Farmers' Market: Saturdays year-round: 8:00am to 1:00pm, Thursdays starting May 25 until October 31: 4:00pm to 7:00pm.

Location: 2 Gordon St.

3

The Bookshelf

The Bookshelf is an independent Bookstore, Cinema, Restaurant, and Bar all in one. A bookstore that shows movies. A cinema that serves dinner. A bar that launches books. Check online to see what events are happening or to see what movies are playing.

Location: 41 Quebec St.

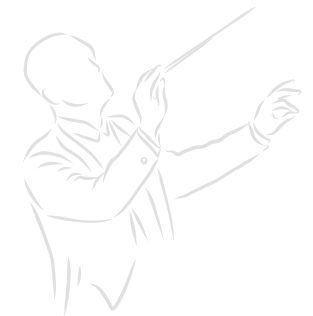

4

River Run Centre

River Run Centre is a multi-purpose performing arts venue – overlooking the picturesque Speed River in the heart of historic downtown Guelph. The theatre features a 785-seat concert hall, a 225-seat studio theatre, and a large central multi-purpose lobby. Check online to see whos performing.

Location: 35 Woolwich St.

5

Quebec St. Mall

Old Quebec Street Mall is a unique village of shopping in the heart of Guelph's historic downtown. The mall provides a charming and memorable experience to visitors; an experience that is intimately tied to its history. The central location makes it a "hub" connecting to many downtown sites.

Location: 55 Wyndham St. N.

Bonus: Scan the QR Code to Explore Guelph's Food and Drink Scene

Guelph is home to several wonderful restaurants, breweries, coffee shops, and more to explore. Give your tastebuds royal treatment and enjoy a splendid food experience! Explore the foodie scene on a Taste Detour – a tour full of magnificent food and beverages.

Accessible formats available by calling 519-837-1335 or TTY 519-826-9771.

